I am Emily Design & Marketing Wins Graphic Design Agency of the Year for Second Consecutive Year

I am Emily Design & Marketing is thrilled to announce its prestigious win as Graphic Design Agency of the Year for the second consecutive year. Director Emily Hewett expressed her excitement, stating, "We can't wait to pick up our multiple-winner gold trophy at the event later this year. I'm so proud of our team for their continuous hard work. To be a winner twice in a row is a massive achievement."

The award, celebrates businesses and individuals consistently offering excellent products and services. The Prestige Awards team conducts extensive research to identify vibrant SME communities and independent scenes worldwide, recognising them as the backbone of any economy.

Osmaan Mahmood, Founder & CEO of Prestige Awards, highlighted the personalised service-driven focus often found in small businesses, a quality often absent from larger organisations. Each business selected by Prestige undergoes meticulous scrutiny, with readers invited to nominate businesses showcasing excellence over the past 12 months.

The judging panel evaluates nominees based on service excellence, product and service quality, innovation, value, ethical or sustainable practices, and consistency in performance. Winners are featured in a celebratory awards magazine, circulated to Prestige subscribers digitally and in print.

I am Emily Design & Marketing, known for its dynamic approach and dedication to supporting businesses in various sectors, specialises in providing comprehensive design, marketing, website, and digital services tailored to start-ups and SMEs. With a passion for creativity and innovation, the agency ensures clients achieve their goals and stand out in competitive markets.

As a testament to their commitment and consistent quality, the Prestige Awards will present I am Emily Design & Marketing with a Limited Edition Multiple-Winner Gold Trophy, alongside a gold-framed certificate, at the upcoming event. This further underscores the agency's expertise and reputation in the industry.
