Emily Hewett Announced as a Finalist for the Solopreneur 2024 Award at the Woman Who Achieves Awards

Essex, UK — Monday, 02 September 2024

Emily Hewett, founder of I Am Emily Design & Marketing, has been announced as a finalist for the Solopreneur 2024 Award at the prestigious Woman Who Achieves Awards. The finalists were revealed this morning at an online network event, marking a significant milestone in celebrating the achievements of female entrepreneurs.

The Woman Who Solopreneur Awards are dedicated to recognising and celebrating the accomplishments of women in business, aiming to inspire others by showcasing successful female role models. The finalists will undergo an interview process later this month, with the winners set to be announced at the Awards Lunch on Thursday, 3rd October 2024, at Hogarths Hotel, Solihull.

Sandra Garlick MBE, founder of Woman Who, created these awards to transform the awards experience for women entrepreneurs. "I'm absolutely delighted to bring back the Woman Who Solopreneur Awards again this year. Working on your own as a sole trader or sole director can be a lonely place. Through these awards, I've built a community of like-minded women in business who lift each other up, offer support, and help boost your confidence," said Sandra Garlick MBE.

Reflecting on her experience this morning, Emily Hewett shared, "I'm new to the Woman Who network and, in the past, haven't liked online networking, but after this morning's networking hosted by the lovely Sandra Garlick, I've changed my mind! There were so many great and inspirational women all championing each other, and I connected with a great bunch of ladies with a similar mindset to me. I can't wait for the lunch in October and to meet face-to-face."

Emily Hewett launched I Am Emily Design & Marketing in 2009, building an award-winning agency that specialises in bespoke design, marketing, website, and digital services. Her agency primarily serves startups and SMEs, while also collaborating with large household names. Known for providing a full-service agency experience at a cost-effective price, Emily and her team focus on understanding each client's unique needs and building strong partnerships that play a crucial role in their clients' success.

Reflecting on her nomination, Emily added, "I had a dream to run a successful graphic design business. It took years of consistent work and small steps forward to turn that dream into a reality, but it was well worth the effort and shows my daughters what an independent woman can achieve if she puts her mind to it. Being named a finalist for The Woman Who Solopreneur Award, which recognises and celebrates the achievements of women in business, couldn't be more perfect!"

The Awards Lunch on 3rd October 2024 promises to be an inspiring gathering of outstanding female entrepreneurs from various industries.
