Emily Hewett Named Finalist in Two Categories at the Best Businesswomen Awards 2024

Essex, UK — 03 July 2024

The Best Businesswomen Awards, renowned as one of the UK's most prestigious accolades for female entrepreneurs, has announced its finalists for 2024. Among the exceptional women recognised this year is local businesswoman Emily Hewett, founder of I Am Emily Design & Marketing. Emily is a finalist in both the Best Solopreneur and Best Creative Business categories.

The past year has tested the resilience of entrepreneurs across the UK, with many showing remarkable tenacity and creativity to drive their businesses forward. The judging panel of the Best Businesswomen Awards noted the high calibre of entries, impressed by the finalists' business acumen and innovation.

Emily Hewett established I Am Emily Design & Marketing in 2009. The award-winning agency, based in Essex, specialises in providing bespoke design, marketing, website, and digital services. Catering primarily to startups and SMEs, Emily's agency also boasts collaborations with several large household names. Known for delivering a full-service agency experience at a cost-effective price, Emily and her team are committed to understanding each client's unique needs, building strong partnerships, and playing a vital role in their clients' success.

Debbie Gilbert, the organiser of The Best Businesswomen Awards, remarked, "This is the 10th year of these prestigious awards. Despite the challenging trading conditions of recent years, these businesswomen have powered forwards. Our judging panel, consisting of business experts, was truly impressed by the quality of the entrants. All our finalists are incredible examples of successful female entrepreneurs who have demonstrated their success to our judges."

Emily Hewett expressed her excitement, stating, "This is the second year I've been a finalist at the Best Businesswomen Awards. Last year, I was thrilled to take home silver in both categories, and this year, I'm aiming for gold! These awards offer more than just a night of celebration—Debbie hosts events that connect women from various industries and supports
