The Best Businesswomen Awards have announced their winners for 2024 at a Gala Awards evening held at the Hilton Syon Park.

Businesswoman Emily Hewett from I am Emily Design & Marketing won Best Creative business and Best solopreneur in this prestigious competition which seeks to find the very best female business talent from across the UK. I am Emily Design & Marketing is a creative agency that provides a wide range of design, marketing, web, and digital services, focusing on supporting startups and SMEs with tailored, high-quality solutions.

Despite a challenging economic climate, the innovation, flair and passion of female entrepreneurs shone through. All winners, selected by a panel of business experts, demonstrated their business acumen, tenacity and courage.

The Best Businesswomen Awards are designed to recognise the achievement of female owned businesses and charities across a wide range of business categories and are open to any female business owners.

Debbie Gilbert, the organiser of The Best Businesswomen Awards, said, "This is the 10th Year of the awards, and we have recognised over 1000 women since we launched in 2015 across a huge range of industry sectors. The selection process is rigorous and to be one of our winners is a major achievement. The judges make their selections based on business expertise, innovation, and high levels of customer care. Our winners are shining examples of outstanding entrepreneurs who have proved their success to our judges and have shown they have the results worthy of being recognised and rewarded."

Emily Hewett, Founder of I am Emily Design & Marketing, said, "Winning silver in two categories at the Best Businesswomen Awards is an absolute honour. These awards aren't just about recognition; they highlight the hard work and dedication it takes to build a business. I am proud to be part of such an inspiring community of women."
